

i would like to kkep my isp. they are berkshire.net! they are an independent company which provides internet cheap for middle class people who live on limited income. i vote no